KG - CANDY CANE DAY

Candy Cane Day Celebration - A Sweet Delight for Little Ones

On December 21, 2024, the young learners of Pre-KG, LKG, and UKG came together to celebrate Candy Cane Day, filling the school with excitement and festive cheer. The event was a delightful blend of joy, sharing, and fun, creating lasting memories for both students and teachers. The little ones enthusiastically brought delicious cakes, which they shared with their friends, fostering a sense of kindness and togetherness. The classrooms and corridors buzzed with laughter as the children enjoyed their treats and engaged in playful activities under the warm guidance of their teachers. Adding to the festive spirit, a mini Christmas celebration was also organized, bringing in the magic of the holiday season. The children gleefully sang Christmas carols, decorated their classrooms, and participated in engaging activities that highlighted the essence of love, sharing, and joy. Teachers played an integral role in making the day special, encouraging the tiny tots to embrace the values of generosity and happiness. The sight of bright smiles, colorful decorations, and the delicious aroma of cakes made the day truly unforgettable.

CHARITY

As part of the Christmas celebrations at Nanjil Catholic School, a special charity event was held that combined both festive fun and generosity. The charity donations were thoughtfully distributed among several well-known charitable institutions dedicated to supporting vulnerable communities.
